A Treasure for Children and Adults

By emily sophia

I love love love Max Lucado. His children's books are so beautiful. I give either this book or Lucado's Wemmick series at every baby shower I attend. This book is such a treasure for children and adults. It tells a gorgeously illustrated and heart-touching story that so reveals the heart of God for his people, for you and me. I'm in my twenties and I still read this to myself when I need a reminder of what love looks like and how good a God I live for.
