Brenda Holt is certain she'll never find love. At the urging of her friend Michaela, she contacts a matchmaker, hoping the woman will work magic and find her a man she can spend her life with. The only catch is, they will be introduced at the altar. When she first meets Daniel Axford, she's convinced that Matchrimony has made its first mistake.

After a rough childhood, Daniel establishes an online dating site, running the business as its CEO. When using his own company doesn't work well for him, he hires a matchmaker to find a suitable bride. Not expecting to feel more than a passing affection for his new bride, he's startled when he sees her, afraid if he gets too close, he'll lose his heart. Can he spend the rest of his life with this woman without falling in love? Or will she break through the wall he's built around himself to find the man within?

Fantastic read

By Ginny LaMere

Once again Kirsten Osbourne has written a fantastic story about finding love in an unconventional way. Daniel wants a wife and children but he is a workaholic and not sure of the whole idea of love, Brenda wants to be married and have children so she contacts Dr Lachele after her friends gets married and find love through her. This book is so fantastic as you see them come together and find a happily ever after

Kirsten' s Best Book Yet!

By C Patterson

I think I'll just title all of my reviews this way going forward! Kirsten Osbourne is a phenomenal story-teller with a wicked sense of humor. Happily ever after is a goal we all desire, that's why we read romance. Brenda and Daniel's story kept me at the edge of my seat with a goofy grin on my face. This series is the best EVER and should be devoured slowly like a fine meal.

Dreams Do Come True

By Phizzyd

Your meager beginning is not always a predictor of your future. Brenda discovered that when she sought out a matchmaker. The contract for marriage would frighten most folks yet Brenda found courage to say yes. A delightful tale of hope.
