Great collection of Waugh's work.

By Sharon Henning

If you like the writers of those early twenties this is an interesting read. The characters are all interesting, some frustrating, some good, many selfish and lead empty amoral lives. But through it all, Waugh, reveals a spiritual dimension that breaks through the cracks of the spiritual darkness of desperate people.

Evelyn Waugh: Selected Works.

By Gail Ann Thompson

I'd been wanting to read BridesHead ReVisited. It was nice to have some other works included. Handfull of Dust was a glimpse into a world, with which I was completely unfamiliar.
