Great for All Feared by the Wealthy

By Chuck D

It is very much text literature of the Roosevelt administration. Great policies which should be reconsidered for today's modern economic woes. Workers rights are and have been an major issue for years now, mostly unresolved. and inadequate. Good work though it could have been more subjective or less.

Boring and superficial

By John J. Falkenstine

For anybody interested in the great depression, this book will come as a disappointment. Its really more of a textbook, written in English at about a 10th grade level. Nothing thrilling in this tome, more or less a superficial catalog of some selective items from the Roosevelt Administration and a collection of speeches. Dull.
