MY TINY ALASKAN OVEN BY LADONNA GUNDERSEN PDF

A California girl, LaDonna got hooked on Alaska, fishing and husband Ole (not necessarily in that order!) more than twenty years ago and has never looked back. As chief deck hand and galley cook on the LaDonna Rose, their 32-foot commercial fishing vessel based in Ketchikan Alaska, she's responsible for all their meals. These are often prepared on the fly, on a rocking and rolling boat, in a tiny 4x7 foot galley (kitchen) using a tiny oil stove and oven. Yet she refuses to stock the galley with "heat and eat" prepared foods and instead has become adept at serving up scrumptious, inventive, quick and easy to prepare dishes such as: "Bacon Wrapped Halibut," "Buffalo Chicken," "Seared Scallops with Teriyaki Salad" and even "Pumpkin Doughnuts." There's recipes for every meal of the day including: "Apple Puffed Pancake," "Grilled Salmon Caesar Salad with Parmesan Croutons," "Artichoke, Tomato and Spinach Pizza," "Crab Croquettes," "Garlic Shrimp Crostini," "Coffee Spiced-Rubbed Spareribs" and "Ole's Butter and Brown Sugar Squares." Discover a new spin on much-loved classics such as King salmon as kebabs, meatloaf baked in muffin tins and a top secret key lime mouse with a clever twist. With My Tiny Alaskan Oven, you will take much pleasure in preparing the food, as in eating it and, it will earn it's place in the kitchens of everyone who craves an easier solution to preparing homemade meals for their family. The book is accompanied with lively stories and gorgeous full-color photographs taken by Ole of the dishes, Alaskan scenery and the commercial fishing lifestyle. No matter how big or tiny your oven... join Ole and LaDonna, as they share their passion for food, fishing, photos and fun!

The author of this great cookbook lives in my hometown of Ketchikan

By Farrel Lloyd Lewis

The author of this great cookbook lives in my hometown of Ketchikan, Alaska. She and her husband commercially fish. She is an excellent cook. I have never had a bad recipe yet from her cookbook. I highly recommend this cookbook not only for the delicious recipes, but because they are healthy recipes as well. The cookbook is worth it just for the beautiful photos.

My Tiny Alaska Oven

By Susan Brown

If I could give this cookbook 10 stars I would! I bought it in Ketchikan in July, and have cooked my way through so many of recipes already. 3 friends have bought the book after seeing mine. I too lived with a Tiny Alaska Oven for many years, the book is so fun. Susan
